

The State of Email Security Report 2019

Key Findings over the previous 12 months - South Africa

63%

of organisations saw increases in impersonation attacks

53%

saw increases in phishing

43%

saw increases in internal threats/ data leaks

51%

believe it's likely or inevitable they'll suffer a negative business impact from an email-borne attack

57%

saw an attack where malicious activity was spread from one infected user to other employees

42%

of organizations experienced a business-disrupting ransomware attack, up 19% from a year ago

84%

experienced email-based spoofing of business partners or vendors

88%

of organisations experienced phishing attacks

69%

of impersonation attack victims dealt with a direct resulting loss

Get The Full Report

*Results from Mimecast-commissioned Vanson Bourne survey of 1,025 global IT decision-makers, Nov. 2018-Feb. 2019